Purpose

VOA-Indiana is dedicated to the delivery of services in an environment which is characterized by strict conformance with high standards of accountability for administration, clinical, business, marketing and financial management. The agency will take necessary actions and make appropriate response to allegations of fraud, waste, abuse and other wrongdoing.

Three Primary Functions:

- 1) Prevention of wrongdoing – whether intentional or unintentional
- 2) Immediate reporting and investigation of questionable activities and practices, without consequences to the reporting party; and
- 3) Timely correction of any situation which puts the organization, its leadership or staff, funding sources or consumers at risk.

For full details on the agency's Corporate Compliance and Whistleblower policies, references ADM 1-32 and ADM 1-34.
